Bollywood Movie .Guns-Russia-Arms-China During the past 30 years, there has been a steady increase in the percentage of the world's military expenditures that are devoted to the development of nuclear, chemical, and biological weapons. Over the past five years, there has been a trend to further increase the expenditures on such weapons. This report provides a comprehensive survey of world military-security developments and trends during the past 30 years. It covers nuclear weapons, biological and chemical weapons, chemical and germ-warfare research and development, military space capabilities, and weapons procurement. It also provides an analysis of the dangers posed to the U.S. by foreign military and terrorist efforts, emphasizing the role of Russia and the People's Republic of China. The authors conclude by identifying the key U.S. military vulnerabilities and the means and methods that Russia and China would need to use to break or threaten the U.S. military posture.
